

PETE LUND / BACK FROM '91

blac sonic

BS450011

1 Back From '91 3:57

Written by: Pete Lund

Produced by: Mark Garrison & Pete Lund

Performed by:

Pete Lund: Vocals, guitars, bass, harmonica & percussion

Mark Garrison: Drums, keys & sonics

Recorded at: Sound Garrison Recording Studio, Buffalo, NY (<http://www.soundgarrison.com>)

A tree torn avenue

After the storm put the lights out

A frozen moment all alone

No birds, no phones

A silent row of homes

No tracks in the roads yet

Still no place to go

No plows, no shows

Snow provides the white

Black is up to what's left over

And loss colors everything

Bereaved still walks around

Hand in hand with memory

The two together (quite a pair)

Arrive at despair

Snow provides the white

Black is up to what's left over

And loss colors everything

Back from '91, thoughts of half a life ago

There's nothing more sad than gone

And time, by design

replays, never rewinds.

2 A Place Holder 2:30

Written by: Pete Lund

Produced by: Mark Garrison & Pete Lund

Performed by:

Pete Lund: Vocals, guitars, bass & drums

Mark Garrison: Slide, keys & sonics

Recorded at: Sound Garrison Recording Studio, Buffalo, NY

My hands look older than they used to holding a pen again.

Waiting — a place
I go.

Staring at pieces
of lines,
resigned, scraped

together into... why bother?

For now I'll take the sound of rain overflowing the leaf-filled gutter.

Pete Lund online:
<http://petelund.bandcamp.com>

Photo credits:

"Hot tin roof" used courtesy of Quinn Dombrowski

<http://www.flickr.com/photos/quinnanya/5032592829/>

"Winter storm Rocky" used courtesy of Chance Fry

<http://www.flickr.com/photos/chaser48/8510779810/>

ALSO AVAILABLE BY PETE LUND

blocTM
SONIC

A very special thank you to Pete Lund!
Welcome to the blocSonic fam!

This work is licensed under a

Creative Commons license

Package & PDF designed by nvzion.com

nvzion™

bloc™
sonic

BS450011 / © May 2013 blocSonic.com