Heading downtown bracing 40

Serving papers in my hand

Running up stairs

The wind racing -4

So cold for a December around here

Elevator all packed with lawyers 4:1

No courtroom today, boys

Stand down

Staring at lines with XXX

Pass them 1x1

There's no going back now that it's done.

Waiving down a gypsy cab

Can you just get me home?

Just go

fortyFive

Because I don't know how To get there

2 LAST ADDICTION 3:42

Written & performed by Pete Lund

I'm thinking about the lucky one who skated right by a hospital.

I'm thinking about the lonely one who never quite knew another.

I'm climbing aboard the carousel of thoughts,
revolving frame by frame,
that always seems to find me

Taking the familiar ride down to the point where not even the words escape, and endless roles of tickets are stored at concession.

I'm thinking about the magic bend that's in the view from the shoulder-side window

fortyFive

where the power lines drift up and down just barely clearing the tops every time.
How do they do that?
Clearing the tops every time
Hell if I know.

I'm thinking about the one last addiction to kick back for a little while.
