DOIN' THE RAPS XE

Once upon a time (2004) in a galaxy far, far away (Kyoto), Highsnow and Crazy-D under their crew name Pant Rhymez (Pant Rhymez formed in 2002), were billed at the same event as cheese (a member of the P.U.C.K. Crew & Cheese N Pot-C formed in 1994). Originally from Canada, cheese had just moved to Kyoto from Kagoshima where he had been working on projects with Pot-C, KFC, and Marphex as well as studio assisting for the Vancouver Hamburger Crew.

During the sound check cheese was amazed by the Pant Rhymez' performance, after the show he approached Highsnow and started a conversation. This led to six albums of material and gangloads of live shows throughout Japan. At the same time via the internet on a site known as Acid Planet, Highsnow, Crazy D, KFC & cheese joined forces to make tracks with: 34Pro, James Esco and S-Master and the CBW, Blackeyed Productions, DJ Dunci, ABT, Trackhouse, DJ Phoney, BiggaThomas, Hangman, T-Pick, Pot-C, DJ Goatt and Phreniq.

These two volumes of "Doin' The Raps" (originally released by the netlabel Random Flow in 2008) are just a round up of some of the joints (as chosen by the crew) recorded during 2005-08. Of course the full catalog of tracks recorded during that time could fill up a few more disks, these two compilations aim to give the listener a variety pack of all the different flavors contributed by all the artists involved.

We hope you enjoy checking out the D3Zs "Doin The Raps".
