Matamu mengabarkan malam ini cukup indah

Kicau burung bernyanyi pertanda pagi meliputi

Masih saja terdiam, tak melupakan hal yang terpenting

Bilang, "sayangku sayang, itu kolam berenang"

Jatuh malam yang sepi
Oh belum pernah sesepi ini
Sengkarut kabel doa diatas sana

Dan oh kita masih saja terdiam, tak melupakan hal yang terpenting
Bilang, “sayangku sayang, itu tanah kuburan”

Matamu mengabarkan suatu hari aku pergi
Cium peluk harian, mingguan, tahunan

Masih saja terdiam, tak melupakan hal yang terpenting
Bilang, “Setiap hari kicau burung bernyanyi”

Lalalalalala

Masih saja terdiam, tak melupakan hal yang terpenting
Bilang, “Sayangku sayang, itu sebuah kotoran”

SECRET ARCHIVES OF THE VATICAN

Secret Archives of the Vatican are London based musicians Vince Millett and Louis Counter, who have been releasing genre-defying music since 1988, summarised by them as “Transglobal Breakbeat Dub Science”. The band name is taken from a book but doesn't have any particular significance.

Secret Archives started releasing music during the cassette trader scene and released several cassettes and, later, CDRs and CDs, also contributing to compilation CDs in several countries. They have provided mixes for radio shows across the world, from the BBC to Egyptian and Eastern European shows. In recent years they have been prolific, with many releases available on all major streaming and download sites. The current album release is called Halls of Stone and was released in January 2021. Here, they bring in some Nordic dark folk influence, influenced by such artists as Danheim, Wardruna and Eldrim.

BROKEN DRUM RECORDS

DARKSUNN

The man who - probably - has the World Record of hours behind decks in Lisbon's nightlife. DarkSunn is one of Monster Jinx' thinking heads since the beginning, so that he's called "the CEO", because, in fact, there's no one like him to tell you about our past, present and future. After all, he knows "how to do this" for a long time, and that gives him the knowledge, "that" knowledge you can't learn or buy: you have to conquer it.

From Almada to the world. He brings with him a huge and refined catalogue with many musical references, from the early days of hip hop history, traveling even through jazz or funk, without forgetting what's going on in today's beatscene from all over the world. As a producer, it's easy to imagine him in his haven, somewhere between gear and plants, looking for the perfect loop. And that perfectionism can be seen in "Mint", "Melange", or in any of his contributions to ROXO or Beatcamp compilations. DarkSunn teaches us that there are no limits. Limits of time, limits of style, limits for ideas. He is likely to become a living legend. And that doesn't surprise us, honestly.

MONSTER JINX

Monster Jinx is, at the same time, an artist collective and a platform for the edition and distribution of independent music.

ME AS IN YOU

Also known as mGee aka Mike Gregoire, founder and creator of blocSonic.com. He began making music around 1999, mashing up and remixing tracks using Acid Pro. Though, actually, his connection to and love for music extends far back to his earliest memories growing up in a little tourist spot in Maine, called Old Orchard Beach.

As an adolescent and a fan of the pop group Men At Work he was influenced to try his hand at learning to play the flute, however that instrument just didn't hold his attention very long. Later, as a teenager he saved up and got himself a Casio SK-1 and taught himself to play by ear, little melodies like Motley Crue's "Home Sweet Home" and Harold Faltermeyer's "Axel F". That's pretty much where it ended though... the music career wasn't to be. However, many years later, with the advent of easily obtained music making software, such as Acid Pro and more recently Ableton Live, the type of music he wanted to make finally found an outlet.

His sound is a fusion of hip-hop beats and pop melodies supported by an electronic aesthetic.

"Me As In You" is his outlet for original music and "mGee" is primarily for remixing.
